

Fellowships Available For Untenured Faculty, Doctoral Students and Post-Docs to Attend Leading Competition Policy Summer School and Conference in Rhodes, Greece, June-July 2016

The Centre for Interuniversity Research and Analysis of Organizations (CIRANO) in Montreal, the Rotman Institute for International Business, in the Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto and the Phelps Centre for the Study of Government and Business in the Sauder School of Business at the University of British Columbia (“the Centres”) are pleased to announce a partnership with the European Summer School and Conference in Competition and Regulation (CRESSE: www.cresse.info/). The goal is to encourage and facilitate greater participation by young Canadian economists in this world-class conference and summer school. In its eleventh year in 2016, CRESSE will feature presentations and teaching by some of the leading competition policy experts in the world. More about this year’s summer school and conference can be found at: www.cresse.info/default.aspx?articleID=3398. The summer school is ideal for those interested in competition economics but who, while trained in microeconomic theory and industrial organization, may have had limited opportunity for focused study in the field.

The Centres will jointly fund up to nine fellowships for economists to attend the full 2016 summer school (all nine modules) and conference which will run from June 25 to July 8, 2016 (with the conference taking place July 1-3, 2016). Both will be held on the island of Rhodes in Greece. These fellowships will cover all registration and tuition fees and will include up to C$3,000 additional funding to cover air and hotel costs.

Those eligible for consideration for these fellowships will include economists who are: (i) Canadian Ph.D. students and post-doctoral scholars, and other doctoral and post-doctoral scholars studying or working in Canadian universities; (ii) untenured Canadian faculty members and other untenured faculty working at Canadian universities; and (iii) employees of the Competition Bureau of Canada.

Applicants should provide a letter or email expressing their desire to apply for a fellowship as well as the following: (i) for untenured faculty, post-doctoral fellows and employees of the Canadian Competition Bureau – a CV only; and (ii) for doctoral students (who may not necessarily be at the thesis stage) – a CV, list of graduate economics courses (taken and in process), and names and contact information of two references (but not letters). Applications are welcome now and will be received until all fellowships have been awarded. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply – or at least to express interest – as soon as possible. To facilitate travel planning, some fellowships may be awarded as early as December 2015 and we expect all fellowships to be awarded by April 1, 2016.
