

Call for Papers: Conference: New Research and Policy Perspectives on Inequality and Poverty.

CIRANO - CIREQ - CREEI

Date: April 29th

We are excited to announce a conference on inequality and poverty, which will take place on April 29 in Montreal. This event will include a unique blend of cutting-edge policy and academic perspectives, aiming to shed light on one of the most pressing challenges of our time.

Conference Highlights:

Call for Papers: The core of the conference will consist of 4-5 presentations of frontier research on inequality. Submissions can cover a wide range of topics related to inequality and poverty, and can include empirical, theoretical, and quantitative approaches.

Round Table Discussion: The conference will conclude with an interactive round table, which will bring together experts and participants to engage in a comprehensive dialogue and explore potential solutions.

Submission Guidelines:

We invite paper submissions for presentation at the conference. Please submit your paper by emailing Moise Drabo (drabo.moise@uqam.ca) by February 28. Use the subject line “April 29th Conference on Inequality and Poverty”, include an abstract in the body of the email, and attach the paper in pdf format.

Financial Support:

We are pleased to announce that hotel expenses for speakers will be covered by the conference organizers. Unfortunately, we are unable to provide financial support for travel expenses.

Scientific Committee:

Raquel Fonseca (UQAM)
Nicholas Gendron-Carrier (McGill University)
Andrei Munteanu (UQAM)
Markus Poschke (McGill University)

Important Dates:

Submission Deadline: February 28th
Notification of Acceptance: March 12th
Conference Date: April 29th

We look forward to welcoming you in Montreal, as we strive to deepen our understanding of inequality and work towards creating a more equitable future.
