► Conference on data access

CIRANO, November 30, 2016, 7:30 am to 1:45 pm

By organizing this conference, CIRANO and QICSS want to address in an informed manner with experts and stakeholders the following key issues on access to data: What are the benefits of increased access to data for research? How can we share more data to researchers while protecting the privacy of the respondents? Can the expanded access to data systems that exist elsewhere serve as models? How to finance the establishment of an expanded access environment to Quebec data for researchers and what are the steps involved?
