

LOUISE ROY, O.C., O.Q.

Louise Roy is currently Chancellor and Chair of the Board, Université de Montréal, Chair of the Board and Fellow invited to the Center for Interuniversity Research and Analysis of Organizations (CIRANO). In 2006, she served as President of the Montreal arts Council and this until December 2012. Ms. Roy is also a member of the boards of Directors including Power Financial Corporation, Montreal International, Intact Financial Corporation, the Institute of Corporate Directors and the Council of the National Order of Quebec. She regularly participates in the training of executives from HEC Montréal and the Institute for governance of private and public organizations. Previously, she assumed various functions within the Administration public Quebec then successively held the following positions: CEO of the STCUM, Senior Vice-President of the Laurentian Group Corporation, executive Vice-President at Air France for the Americas, President and CEO of Telemédia Communications division and senior IATA Vice President.

During her career, Ms. Roy has received several awards of distinction including, inter alia, that of the Faculty of commerce and administration from Concordia University in 1988. In 1992, she received the Medal from the Édouard-Montpetit Foundation of the Université de Montréal, a Quebec personality which distinguished itself both on economic than social or political. In 1994, the Public Policy Forum presented her in Toronto an honor award in respect of her contribution to the direction of a large public company. In 2003, Federated Press awarded her its award of Excellence Conference on the governance of companies. In 2009, Ms. Roy was appointed Officer of the National Order of Quebec and in 2012, Officer of the Order of Canada. In 2014, she received the woman of distinction and outstanding achievement award from the Y Foundation for her exemplary career. Also in 2014, Ms. Roy was named Fellow of the Institute of Corporate Directors.